OUR BUSINESS INTERESTS.

The business of Mt. Sterling is of such proportions that it is of value to public carriers and can be made more valuable if we are wise in making connections with other roads. The roads should be feeders as well as a means of competitive outlets. We should study well our own interests and work to that end. It was possible at one time to have secured the Lexington & Eastern but that opportunity slipped and much of the trade we could, prior to the construction of this road, claim as our own went elsewhere. We may be able to secure railroad facilities that would give us a fighting chance for its return, but if we had a connection it should be under our own control so that trains would be run in our interest, making such connections as would be most convenient to the trade. Our committees should consider all these things.

CONSPICUOUSLY

ON RECORD.

Theodore Roosevelt is the first president of the United States since Abraham Lincoln who has expressed himself publicly in favor of woman suffrage before attaining the presidency. Cleveland proved himself favorable to it by actions rather than words, as he signed bills giving women partial suffrage in New York when he was Governor of that State. Hayes favored it in his quiet way, and helped to get a woman's rights resolution through the National Republican Convention of 1872. Garfield recognized its growing importance. He said: "Laugh as we may, put it aside as a jest if we will, keep it out of Congress or political campaigns, still the woman question is rising on our horizon larger than the size of a man's hand; and some solution, ere long, that question must find."

Mr. McKinley presented a handsome doll to the National Suffrage Bazaar not long before her husband's assassination, and Ohio suffragists, in their resolutions of regret for President McKinley's death, spoke of him as a sympathizer with the cause. Some other presidents were believed to be more or less friendly to it, but Roosevelt and Lincoln have been the only ones to put themselves conspicuously on record.

Woman suffrage is a subject up to the times. What shall be done with it? Shall woman enter by thought, word and act the political arena? If men would seriously consider the vital principles of the party for the purpose of finding out what is best for our people if they would be honest with themselves and away from an individual interest this question of woman's suffrage would be far in the future. If there is a present necessity for women at the polls it is because men are not faithful and honest with the greatest number, their constituents. Women have home duties and church duties. They are going into the profession, the shops and now to purify politics is another question to be decided soon.

WEAK BACKBONE.

The Council of Sharpsburg met and ordered the license on saloons raised from $200 per year to $350. This closed them for a while. The Council reconvened, revoked their former order and made the license at the old figure, $200. Had the Council on their reconvening made an advance of $150 more, making the license $350, instead of going backward, they may have saved much remorse of conscience and the saloonist time to consider the character of his business. If they must sell it is a better plan to make the business go high, but better far not to sell at all. If that Council had stiffened its backbone and made the license $500 the city would have had more money or less drunkenness; the women and children more bread and less abuse.

WE OBJECT.

Speaking of Kentucky exhibits how would it do to send over a section of one of mountain roads in winter time. Commissioner Halsey and Tutt should secure that section just this side Heleclawa and clinch the honor (?) for Wolfe county.—The Herald, Hazelgreen.

We have seen that road in spring, summer and winter. We object to the exhibit, as it would discredit the intelligence, common sense, business capacity and regard for the public on the part of our Kentuckians who are supposed to be in charge of public thoroughfares in Wolfe county, the immediate vicinity of Hazelgreen.

This is not the first time we have noticed roads and streets in and out of Montgomery county. These words, plainly spoken, should be taken as an admonition and not as a cut or criticism.

IN INDIANA.

Leander Guffy, tipstaff of the Court of Appeals, has been located at Marion, Ind., where he has opened a law office.

Early in October he skipped from Kentucky to Indiana. He evidently knew too much about the conspiracy to kill Gov. Goebel to be easy in Kentucky; so he followed the example of other distinguished(?) worthy(?) law-abiding(?) Kentucky Republicans and is now sojourning under the protection of a Republican Governor.

Wait, wait, wait, a little longer and you'll find out what Youtsey has said before the Franklin County Grand Jury, concerning Taylor, Finley, Howard, Powers & Co.

STOCK MARKETS.

Mt. Sterling stock markets continue to improve. Monday court, fine mules were seen by the score.

Home market is improving and considering the weather the cattle market was as good as should have been expected. We expect for 1903 the best markets in Mt. Sterling's history.

DIVORCE.

Dockets of many of our courts are burdened with divorce cases. This could be remedied by those authorized to perform marriage ceremonies refusing to officiate in cases only where scriptural grounds exist for divorce. The sacred matrimonial vows are often too lightly regarded.

SWEAR NOT.

Judge Heratt has issued a mandate against swearing in the town, which has perceptibly lessened the disgusting use of profanity upon our streets.—The Herald, Hazelgreen.

How about Mt. Sterling?

MUCH TO DO.

The grand jury, if they carry out the instructions of the court will be of valuable service to the county. The foreman, Hon. J. D. Young, will cover as much ground as the limited time will permit and doubtless evil doers will be glad when the time comes for adjournment. Laws must be regarded.

A FINE MAN.

We are in receipt of late papers from Guthrie, Oklahoma, sent by Mr. C. H. Donohue. Guthrie is to be congratulated upon having as one of her business men, a man of such sterling worth and known integrity as Col. Donohue. When the people there learn to know him they will find him a honest man and an upright citizen.

LAND, STOCK AND CROP ITEMS.

Andy Willis bought of S. A. Duff a weanling mule for $98.

Ed McClure and T. N. Bush sold to R. C. Gatewood 5 hogs at $5.75.

P. B. Turner sold to R. C. Gatewood 40 117-pound hogs at 65 cents, Feb. 1st.

Wm. Jndy, of Clark, sold a sorrel horse for $90. The buyer was offered $95.

A. P. Darrell, of Fleming, bought of C. S. Talbott, of Bourbon, a span of mules for $280.

L. B. Cockrell and Jones Combs, of Wade's Mill, sold 18 acres of tobacco to Mr. Ellis, of Paris, at 10 and 3 cents. H. C. Gillespie sold to same two crops at 10 cents and 10 1/2 cents.

Wm. Cravens, auctioneer, reports the following sale, January 18th. A. Priest Henry, administrator of Daniel Henry, deceased. Three hogs at $7 per head; 1 sow and 5 shoats, $26; 1 sow and 6 shoats, $28; 1 3-year-old cow, $29; 1 8-year-old cow, $26; 1 10-year-old cow, $28.50; 14 calves at $18.10 per head.

Lieutenant Governor of South Carolina a Murderer.

At Columbia, S. C. on last Thursday N. G. Gonzales, editor of this State, was shot down on the street by James H. Tillman, Lieutenant Governor of the State. His condition ever since was critical and death resulted at 1 p. m. on Monday. There seemed to be no provocation for the attack. The editor met the Lieutenant Governor and two friends on the street and stepped to one side of pavement to let them pass. No words were passed. The high official drew his pistol and fired. A dispatch says there is universal sorrow in the city. Since the shooting Tillman has been in jail.

Letter Boxes Free.

The Postoffice Department has decided to furnish every farmer, at its own expense, with an official letter box, which, being the property of the government, will be protected against theft by the lawful authority of the Federal law. Thus in future, on the rural free delivery routes, mail matter will be as safe from robbers as when deposited in receptacles on urban street corners.

Another new departure is likely to be the employment of women more extensively as carriers on rural routes. Already a few mail carriers of the gentler sex are in the service, at the customary $50 a month.

Small Pox.

At meeting of City Council and Fiscal Court on Friday, two committees, composed of councilmen King and Wm. B. Bots, and A. A. Henselrigg and C. G. Thompson, of the court, were appointed to act jointly in doing what is necessary to suppress and prevent the spread of small pox. There is need of caution.

Rev. A. N. White, former pastor of the Carlisle Baptist Church, has been admitted into the Confederate Soldiers Home.

The Monument China's Warning To the Boxers and a Symbol of Peace.

The dedication of the Von Ketteler memorial arch, which occurred at Peking, Jan. 13, was an impressive ceremony. The arch was erected by China. Baron Von Ketteler was the German Minister who was killed by Boxers at the outbreak of the Boxer trouble. The dedication took place in the presence of a brilliant assemblage of diplomats, many Chinese officials, military officers in Peking. Baron Von Dergoltz, First Secretary of the German Legation, officiated in behalf of Germany, and Prince Chan, brother of the Emperor, who was sent to Germany to apologize for the murder of the Minister, represented China at the altar, while imperial sacrificial vessels were erected before the arch. Chen poured out a libation in honor of the dead man. He spoke as follows:

"This monument is to be a warning, a sign of friendly relations between our two countries and a symbol of peace."

To these words Baron Von Dergoltz replied:

"This monument has been consecrated to the Emperor of Germany by the Emperor of China as permanent proof of the anger of the Emperor at this crime. In erecting this monument in China he fulfills the obligation he took up after the events of 1900. The monument shall stand as a sermon to posterity and as a lasting symbol of the desire of the Chinese Government to promote and perpetuate friendly relations with foreign governments."

Circuit Court.

Circuit Court convened Monday, with Judge Jno. E. Cooper on the bench and Commonwealth's Attorney W. A. Young at his post. The docket is composed of 103 continued equity cases, 31 equity appearance, 10 continued ordinary, 19 ordinary and 115 Commonwealth.

The following gentlemen compose the Petit Jury:

P. R. Cockrell, R. M. Smith, D. L. Smith, Frank Chenault, Frank Blount, Nick Hadden, Jr., Thomas Hiale, T. J. Thomas, C. E. Duff, J. T. Higland, J. E. Young, W. O. Chenault, Davis Orser, John W. Lockridge, G. E. Chick, Joe Johnson, R. M. Coons, Trav. Wells, J. A. James, Levi Kratzer, Wallace Scott, Sam Greenwald, H. Barnes, Alvin Myers.

GRAND JURY.

John D. Young, Sr. Foreman; J. W. Gatewood, H. C. Robinson, H. K. Oldham, S. S. Fizer, Vol. Gillespie, E. R. Wilburn, Simpson Garrett, Frank Cochran, W. L. Stout, Allen Myers, T. L. Fogg.

Peat House in Bath Burned.

Several carpenters were at work on Sunday building a peat house 14 x 32 feet at the Casey Poor House on McDaniel's farm, near Owingsville. On Sunday night incendiaries applied the torch and destroyed the partially constructed building. Such conduct merits the attention of a grand jury and heavy penalty of the law.

United States Supreme Court Holds Adams Divorce Void.

The United States Supreme Court Jan. 19, again passed upon the validity of divorces granted in South Dakota to non-residents. The case in point was that of Minnie Andrews vs. Kate H. Andrews. It is said the question at issue is as to which is entitled to administer upon the estate of Charles S. Andrews, whom both claimed as husband.

Mrs. Kate Andrews was the first wife, and her husband secured a divorce in South Dakota after remaining there six months, the time required by the statutes of that State.

The Supreme Court affirmed the lower court, holding that the Dakota divorce was void.

Heart Trouble Baffled Doctors.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and Nerve Cured Me.

There is nothing more necessary to health than sleep and rest. If these are denied you, if you rise in the morning more tired than when you went to bed, there is an affection of the nerves plainly present. If your heart is weak, or there is an inherited tendency in that direction, your weakened nerves will soon so affect your heart's action as to bring on serious, chronic trouble. Dr. Miles' Nerve and Heart Cure, which quiets the nerves, so that sleep may come, and it quickly restores the weakened nerves to health and strength. Dr. Miles' Heart Cure is a great blood and heart tonic which regulates the action of the heart, enriches the blood and improves the circulation.

Some time ago I was suffering severely with heart trouble. At times my heart would seemingly stop beating and at others I would beat loudly and very fast. Three to four hours sleep each night in ten months was all I could get. One week in last September I never closed my eyes. I got Dr. Miles' Nerve and Heart Cure as a drug store in Lawrenceburg, after spending $5000 in medicines and doctors in Louisville, Shelbyville, Frankfort, Cincinnati and Lawrenceburg, and in three days have derived more benefit from the use of your remedies than I got from all the doctors and their medicines. I think everybody ought to know of the marvelous power contained in your remedies.

Insulted By a Brute.

Friday between trains a poor woman from Kowan county stopped over here. She was a widow of three months and had a five-month-old babe. She was moneyless and was trying to make her way in this destitution to her only kinsfolk in Madison, Indiana. She did not know how to beg but told her condition to a man who rather than offer help offered an insult. If he could be known the good people would see to it that he would move on from this place.

Business Men's Club.

At the regular meeting of the Business Men's Club Tuesday evening a committee was appointed to bring before eastern capitalists the amount and kind of business done from Mt. Sterling and to co-operate with them at opportune times. The club adopted as a signal to call the company together at regular and call meetings two strikes from the fire bell. A committee was appointed to arrange programs for regular meetings.

To the Public.

While the friendly and good natured contest is pending for the libraries to be given away by the merchants, the trustees of the Public School desire to call the public's attention to the very urgent need of that worthy public institution along that line.

A library is a necessity in a large school, and one of general reference works and of historical and literary value will be of incalculable benefit and would add much to our school's equipment. Should the school be so fortunate as to secure the books, the Board will make and enforce rules and regulations for their proper care and use by all the pupils.

It is your school, maintained by your taxes, not only this year but for years to come. Do you want to help it, an increase its usefulness? If so, don't fail to favor it with your votes when buying goods or settling accounts.

Vigorous Old Age

Paine's Celery Compound makes the old feel young, and cures their ills. It has added years of health and enjoyment to many a life. Use this great medicinal remedy, and its invigorating powers will fill your declining years with health, strength, and happiness. Read what George I. Stone, 67 years old, writes—

Waters & Kettner Co.,
Gentlemen:—I had a word in favor of Paine's Celery Compound, hoping it may catch the eye of some afflicted person, and they may receive the same satisfactory benefit. Some 15 years ago I had a combination of malaria, chills and fever, and grip, which continued for a year or more. I was in bed almost all the time, and my health was so poor that I began to despair. Paine's Celery Compound was recommended, and after using a bottle I began to improve, gaining about a pound a week. In a year I had regained 30 pounds of the lost weight and good health, and have been a well man ever since. Yours truly, GEORGE I. STONE.

Didn't Last.

A young married man who died in Louisville made it his last request of his family that his children should not be brought up in society or allowed to become members of the swell set. He got the promise, but from all appearances it was never kept. Now, there are two or three, maybe more, of our swell married couples who are going on fast this about time to throw out the anchor. There is a story told by a bright Main-street man of two Irishmen who concluded to tour America on foot, but after they had gotten a little way along they saw a horse and, feeling pretty footsore, resolved to buy it. "Pat," said Mike, "how can we stop her if she runs away?" "Well, get an anchor, bedad," said Pat, "and when she gets to going well throw it out." Well, they got a lot of rocks, tied them in a big sack, attached a rope to the same and put the anchor in front of them on the horse. Then Mike saw a pair of old Mexican spurs. "Ah," said he, "there's something to clinch on by; let's have them." He bought the spurs, not knowing their real use, and, having dug his heels in to the old mare's flanks, was horrified to find her going like a wind-mill. The more he spurred her the faster she went. Just about this time Pat exclaimed, "Oisay, Moike, my boy, isn't it about time they cast out th' anchor?"

If the chronicles of the restaurant waiters and others can be believed it's about time for some apprehensive soul to cast out the anchor on some of these dirty couples who are digging the spurs in the sides of the old Society mare.

Contribute $150,000.000.

Members of leading London firms representing South African interests held an important meeting on Jan. 15, and definitely agreed on a war contribution of $150,000,000, payable in three annual installments of $50,000,000, and covered by a loan not redeemable before ten years. The first $50,000,000 will be issued in 1904. Baron Rothschild was appointed to choose the date of the issue.

An announcement of the agreement arrived at was cabled to Colonial Secretary Chamberlain at Johannesburg. His acceptance is anticipated.

Mrs. Fred Unruh, prominent country club, near Harrison, Ky.

"After my first baby was born I did not seem to regain my strength although the doctor gave me a tonic which he considered very superior, but instead of getting better I grew weaker every day. My husband insisted that I take Wine of Cardui for a week and see what it would do for me. I did take the medicine and was very grateful to find my strength and health slowly returning. In two weeks I was out of bed and in a month I was able to take up my usual duties. I am very enthusiastic in its praise."

Wine of Cardui reinforces the organs of generation for the critical of pregnancy and childbirth. It prevents miscarriage. No woman who takes Wine of Cardui need fear the coming of her child. If Mrs. Unruh had taken Wine of Cardui before her baby came she would not have been weakened as she was. Her rapid recovery should commend this great remedy to every expectant mother. Wine of Cardui regulates the menstrual flow.

The Need of Christ.

Every thinking man who has seen much of life has been impressed with the lack of real and deep happiness on the part of multitudes of people. He has also noted the absence of seriousness and of earnest purpose in the average man. To the Christian this all means that the world sorely needs Jesus Christ. He alone can impart the joy it wants: He alone can make life purposeful and useful to the highest degree. If we but realized how sorely the man next to us needs the comradeship and inspiration and the salvation of the Man of Nazareth, we would be quicker to speak the word of witness and of urging.

The Treasury Department has learned that to a certain extent alien girls and women are being imported into this country for immoral purposes. An effort will be made to have women inspectors meet incoming ships and warn such visitors as to the character of the houses where they are going—practically all of those recently imported being under the impression that they had been engaged for honest employment.

Judge was Offered Bribe of $250,000.

At Helena, Montana, sensational testimony was given in the disbarment proceedings brought by Judge Harney, of the district bench, against Arthur J. Shores, chief counsel of the Amalgamated Copper Company, in Montana.

James B. Root, former attorney for Senator W. A. Clark, testified that offers of $100,000, $200,000 and finally $250,000 were made to Judge Harney if he would make a statement that "F. A. Heinz had bribed him to give a decision in the famous Minnie Healy mine case and resign his place on the bench. The offers were made by Charles Clark, son of the Senator, in the presence of Attorney Root, in Mr. Shore's private room at the Thornton Hotel, on the night of Aug. 5 and 6, 1902. According to Root Harney resisted all overtures, and then Mrs. Ada Brackett was sent for and $2000 was offered to her to use her influence on Harney, but this also miscarried.
